

The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia
Superintendent's Office,

May 6, 1896.

Mr. N. M. Ward,
1520 Huntingdon St.

Sir-

The Superintendent directs me to say in answer to your letter of the 5th instant that there is no premium on your dime of 1835 herewith returned. It is very much worn. If it was uncirculated, that is, in the same condition as when first coined it would fetch about forty cents. Proofs are worth from $3. to $4.

The Mint does not deal in old coins. You are referred to the enclosed list of dealers.

Yours respectfully,

George R. Johnson

Chief Clerk.

Herman Kretz, Superintendent.

I would like to have the piece to keep it again with thanks
N. Ward

I Thank you very much for your kindness but the coin was not enclosed in this letter - with great Respect -
N. M. Ward

It was a 10 ct Piece of 1835
In good preservation
